

Unintentional Injuries

Regional Health Assessment Midpoint Update 2017

Unintentional Injury-related Mortality Rate

The unintentional injury-related mortality rate (per 100,000) in Jefferson County was significantly higher than the Oregon and Deschutes County mortality rates.

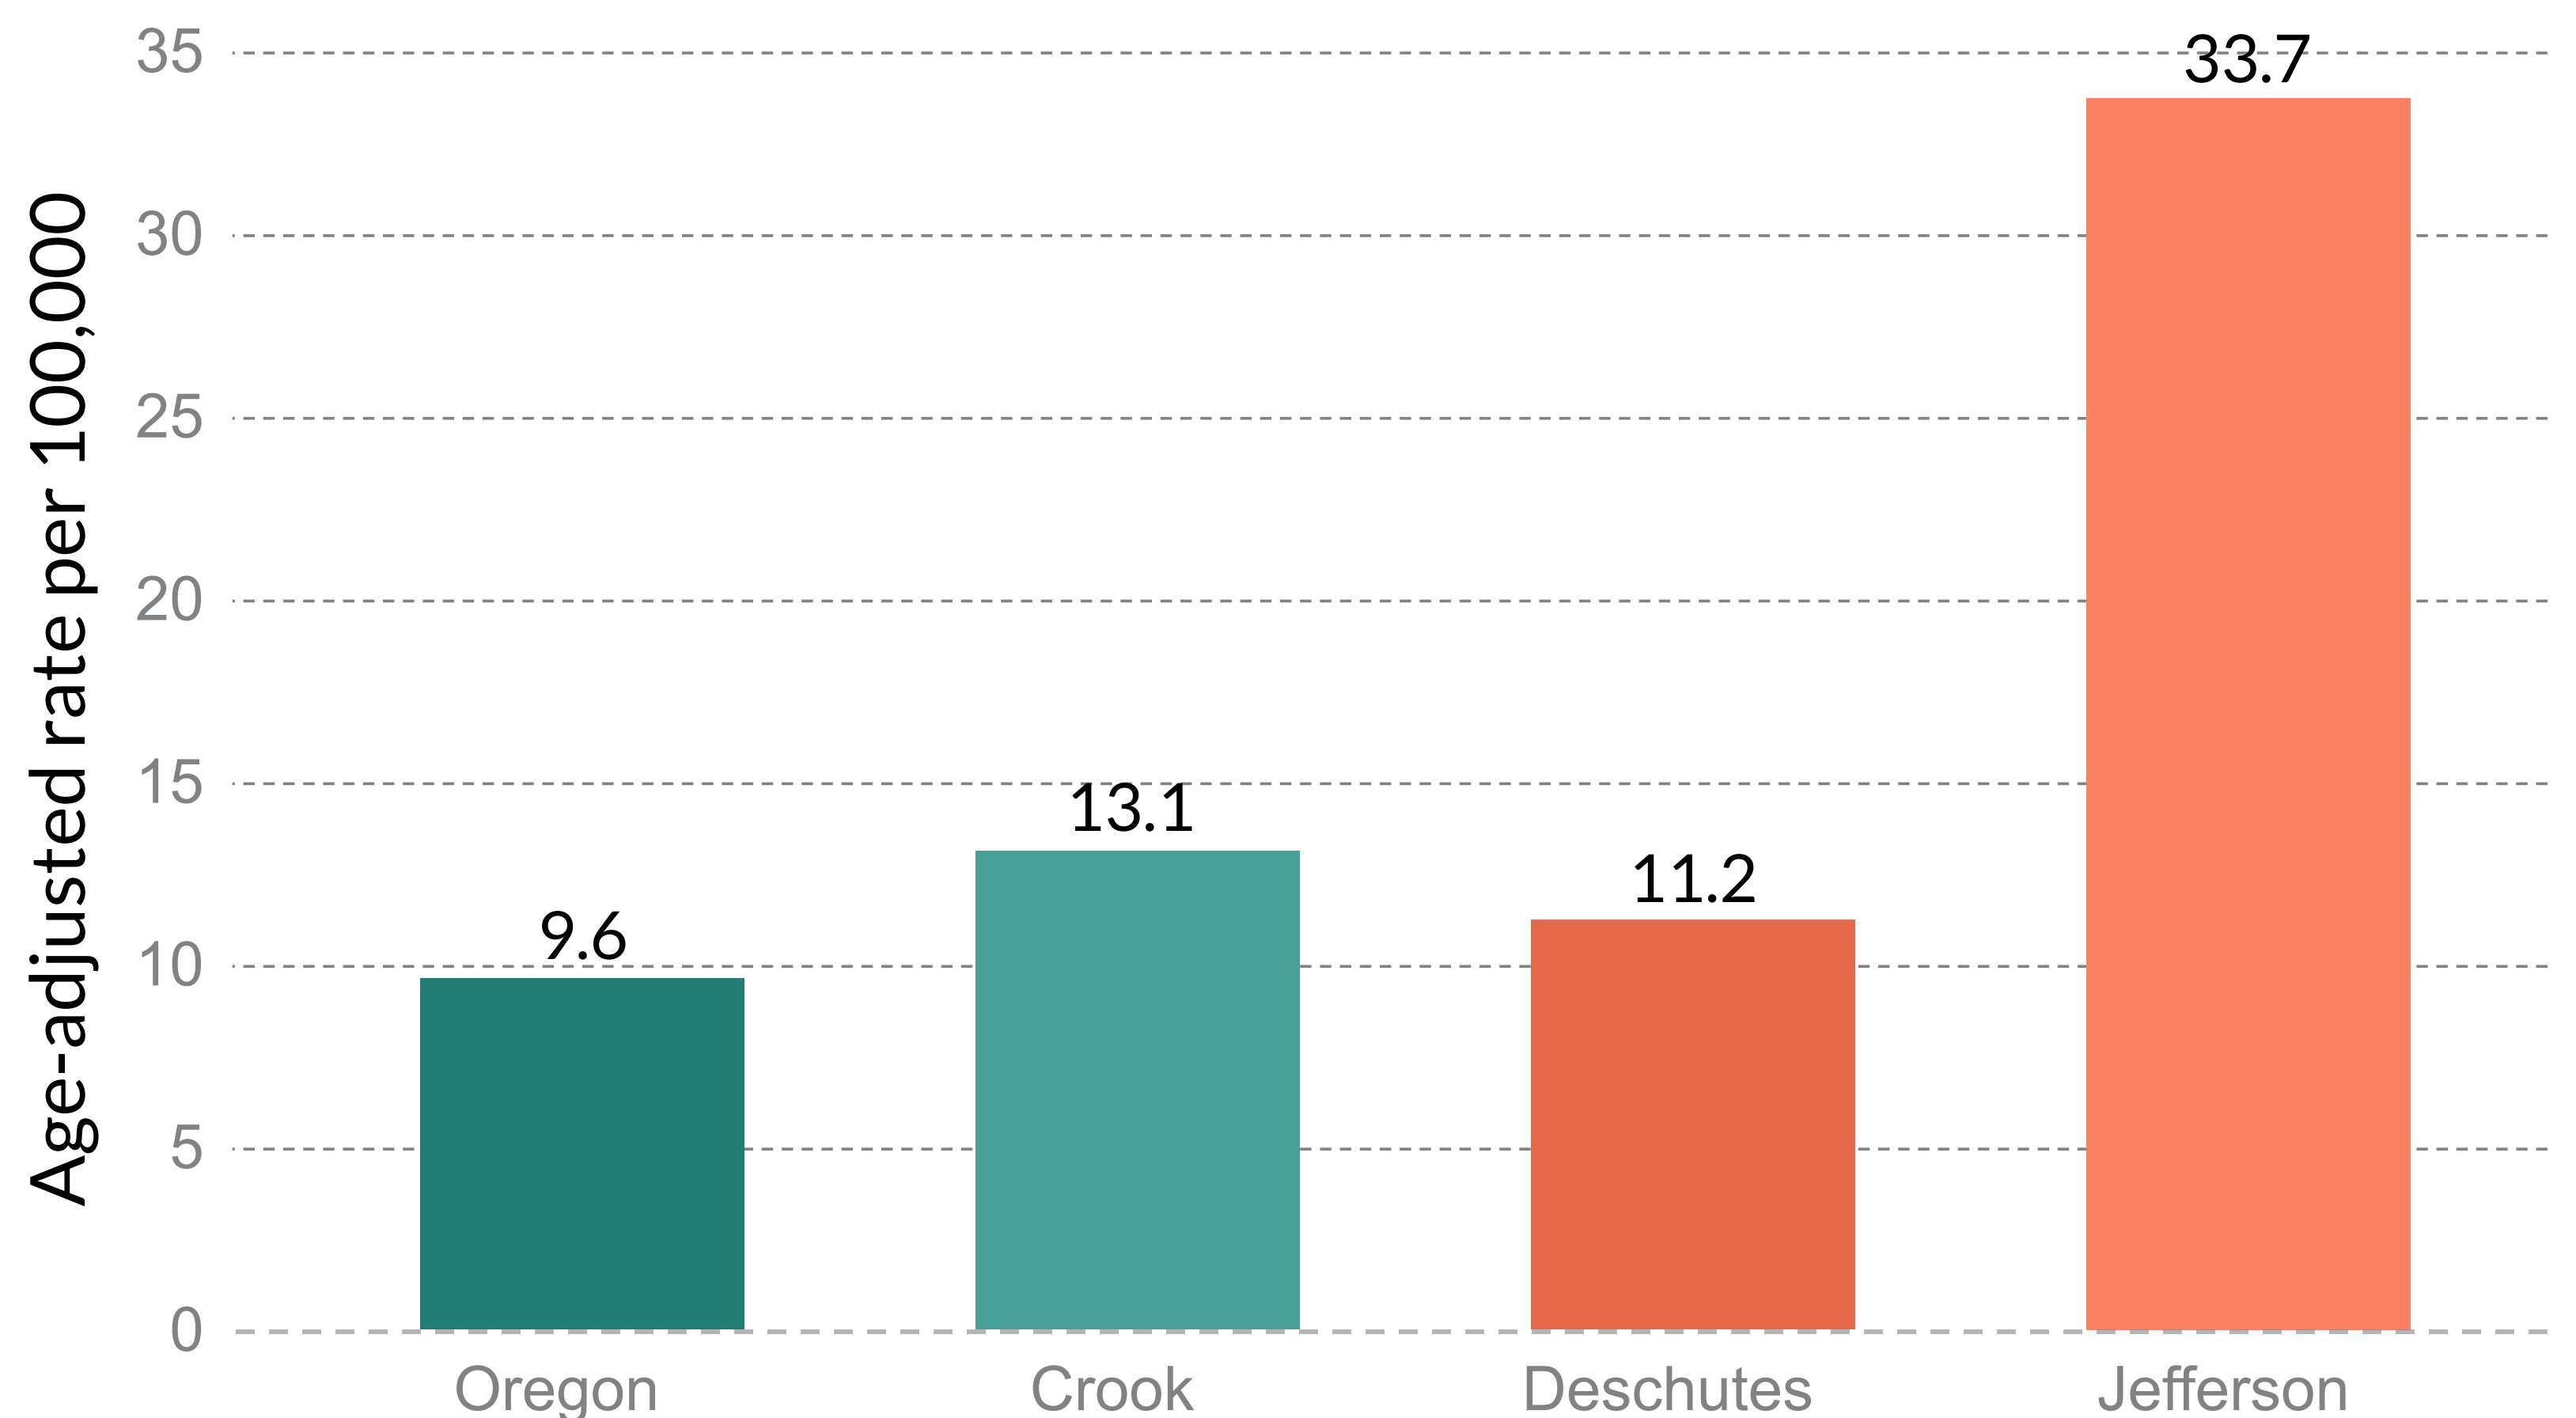

Data from 2015 Oregon Death Certificates

Unintentional Motor Vehicle Crash Mortality Rate

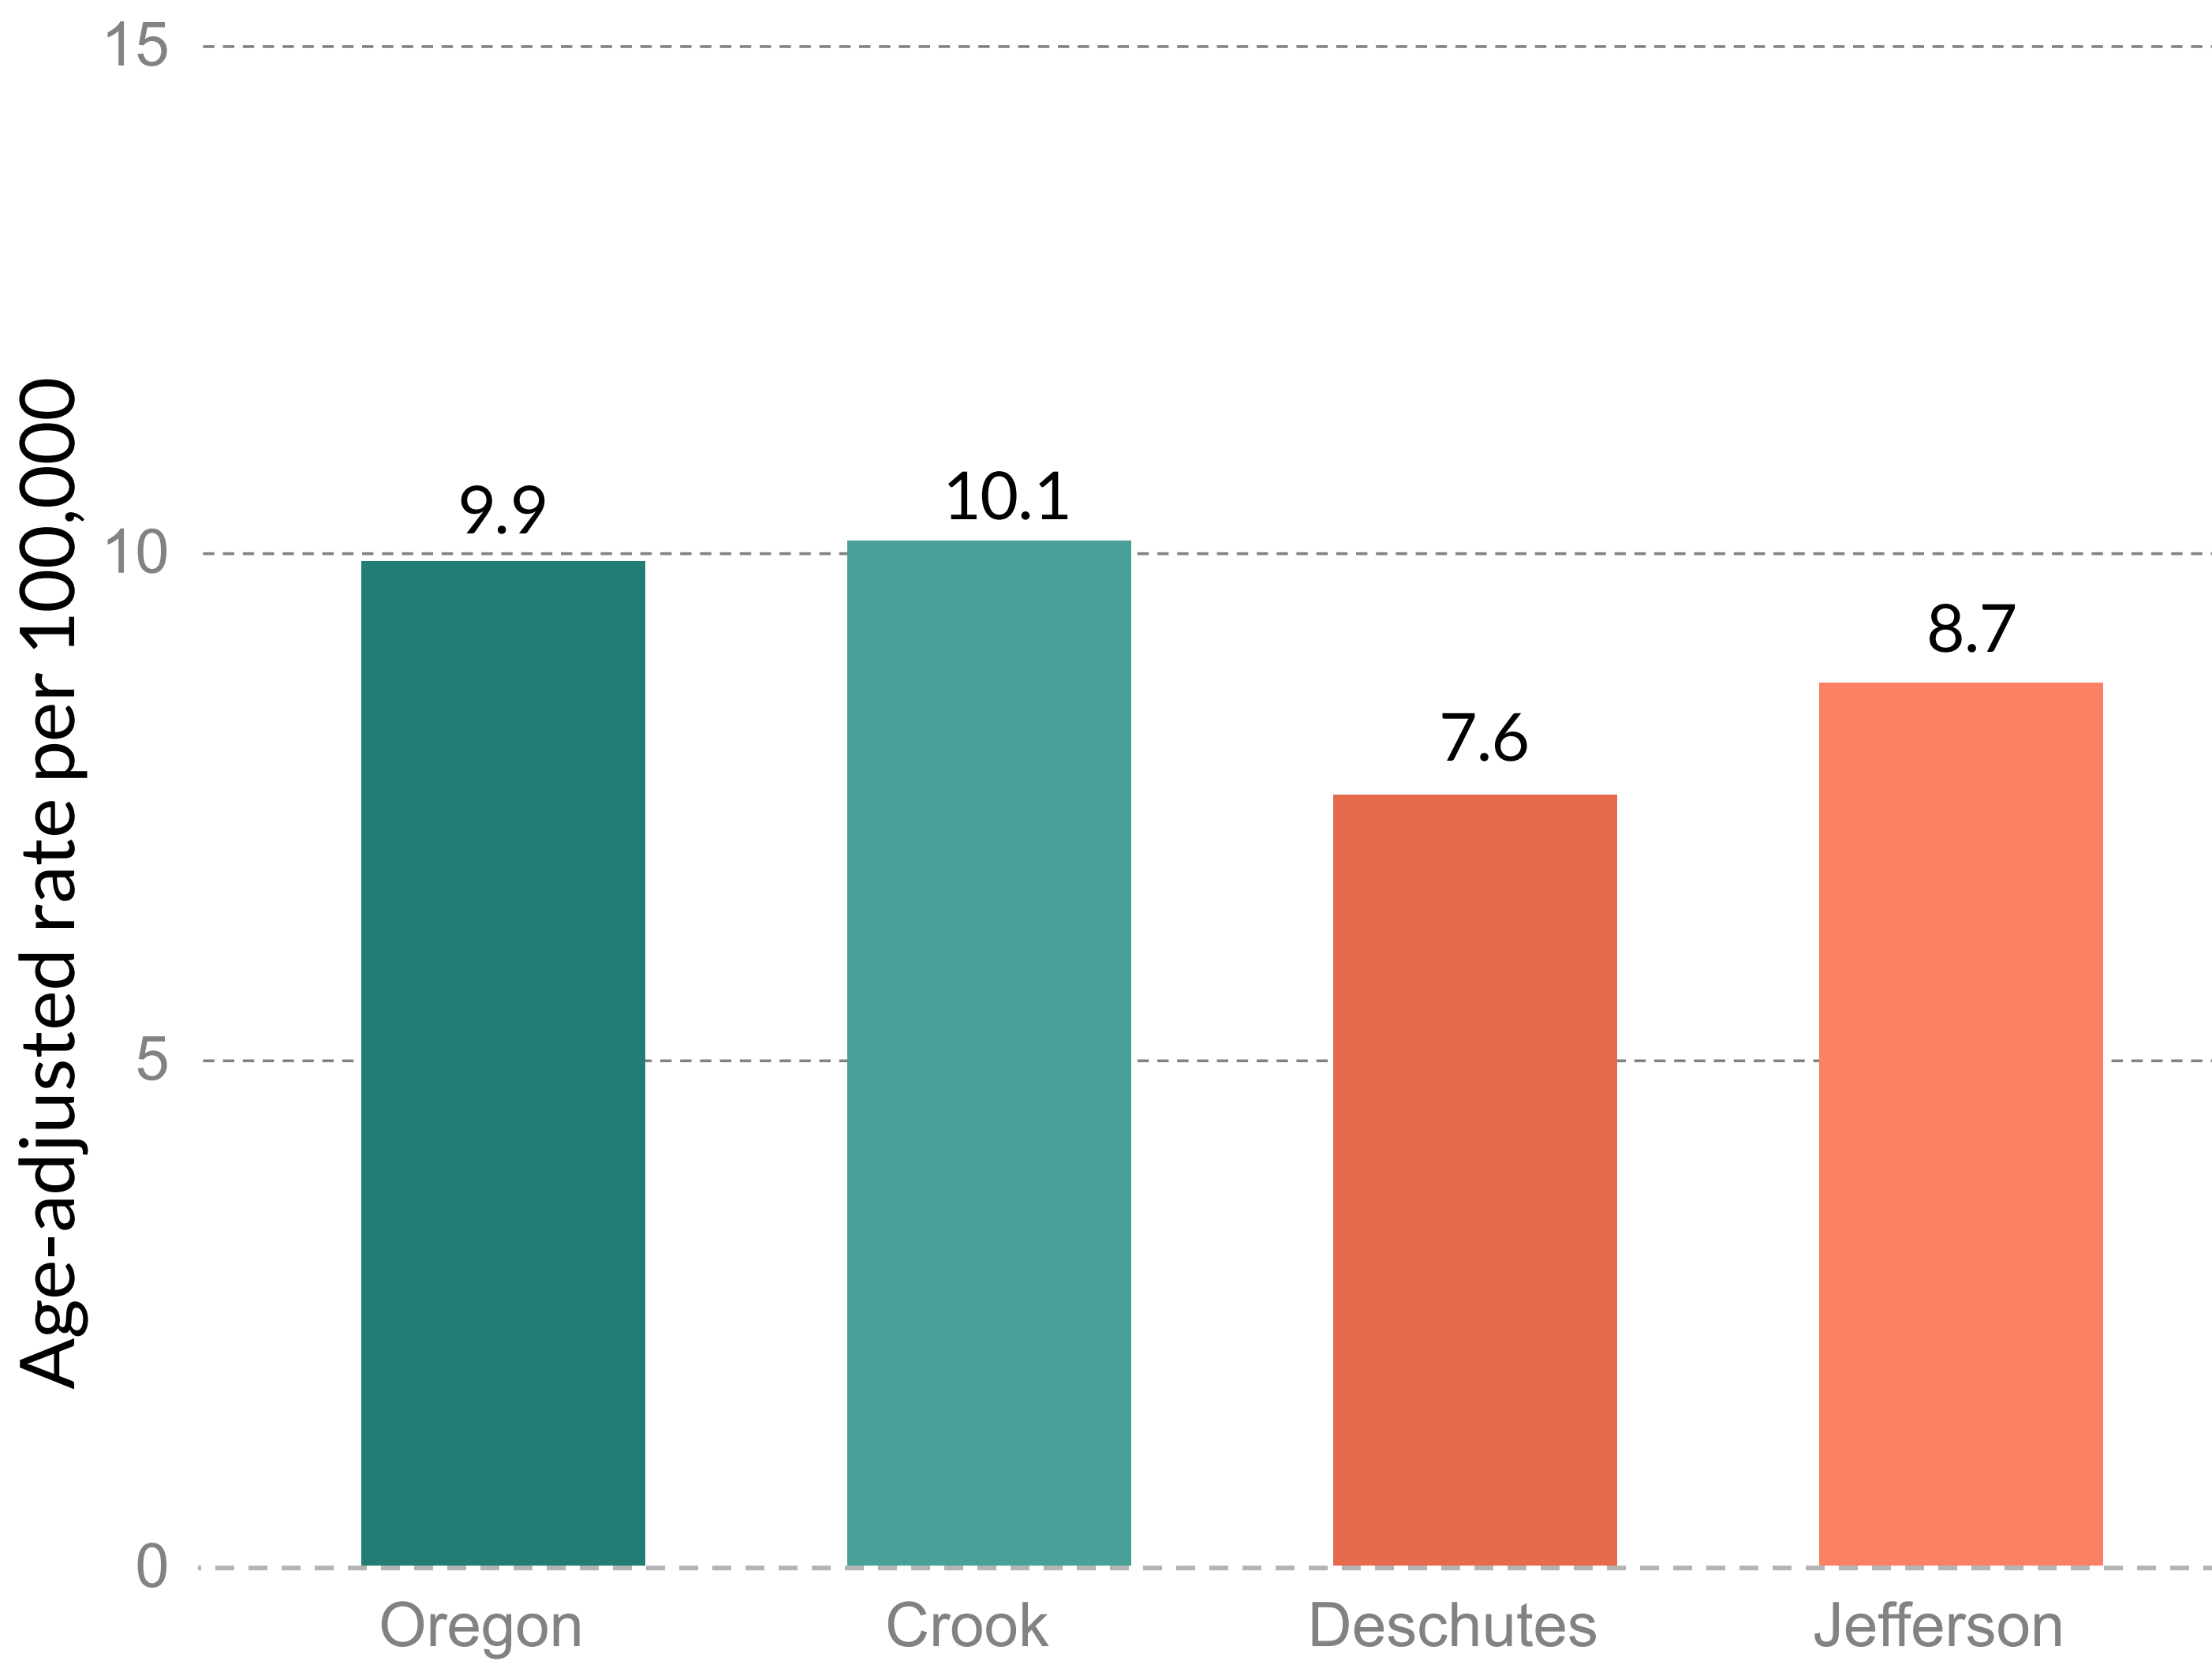

The highest mortality rate (per 100,000) from motor vehicle crashes in Central Oregon was in Jefferson County.

In 2015 alone, there were 21 fatal motor vehicle crashes in Central Oregon.

Data from 2006-2015 Oregon Death Certificates.

Unintentional Poisoning Mortality Rate

Death rates (per 100,000) from unintentional poisoning were significantly lower in Deschutes County than in Oregon as a whole.

Data from 2006-2015 Oregon Death Certificates

Unintentional Falls Mortality Rate, by sex

For unintentional falls:

Jefferson County men had a significantly higher mortality rate (per 100,000) than Oregon men.

Deschutes County men had a significantly lower mortality rate (per 100,000) than Oregon men.

Data from 2006-2015 Oregon Death Certificates

deschutes.org/healthdata